KEY PROJECTS

- Crossrail Surface Works, South East

Project Archaeologist. Western & eastern surface routes of the Crossrail project. Responsible for developing and managing mitigation strategy to enable the avoidance/reduction of scheme risk.

- Heritage Characterisation: Thames Gateway, Kent and Essex Project Archaeologist.

Andy undertook an assessment as part of this innovative GIS project, and provided a strategic overview of the character and sensitivity of the Thames Gateway's historic environment to enable more targeted planning decisions. risk.

- A477 St Clears to Red Rose Road Improvement works, Carmarthenshire

The challenge for the Client was how to manage the significance of the archaeology, and it's importance to the local community, with the efficient progress of much needed road improvements.

Andy was embedded as part of the design team at Gifford, and designed and managed a full suite of investigation works to manage the project risk associated the archaeology. He led a careful and phased programme on site to ensure the project stayed on course and on budget. The A477 won the prestigious George Bibby Award for 'Integration and Collaborative Working Award' reduction of scheme risk.
